

Contact: Dennis Feltgen
dennis.feltgen@noaa.gov
305-229-4404
305-433-1933, cellular

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
May 12, 2017

MEDIA ADVISORY

NOAA hurricane experts available at Governor's Hurricane Conference

Media may request interviews with National Hurricane Center acting director and specialists

NOAA's National Hurricane Center acting director Edward Rappaport, Ph.D., and several hurricane specialists will be available for media interviews at the 31st annual Governor's Hurricane Conference in West Palm Beach, Fla., on May 17th.

Hurricane specialists from the center, part of the National Weather Service, will join experts from state and local agencies, emergency managers, first responders and others for training courses, workshops and panel discussions on tropical cyclones and storm mitigation.

An agenda, including session subjects, speakers and schedules, is available at <http://www.flghc.org>

NOTE: Media must reserve interview blocks by contacting Dennis Feltgen directly at the phone numbers or email above, in addition to registering at <http://flghc.org/media-room> for conference credentials.

WHAT: One-on-one interviews with National Hurricane Center acting director and specialists.

WHEN: Wed., May 17, 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. EDT

WHO: Edward Rappaport, Ph.D., acting director
Jack Beven, Ph.D., senior hurricane specialist
Daniel Brown, senior hurricane specialist

WHERE: Media Room
Palm Beach County Convention Center
650 Okeechobee Blvd.
Room 1J/K
West Palm Beach, Fla. 33401

NOAA's mission is to understand and predict changes in the Earth's environment, from the depths of the ocean to the surface of the sun, and to conserve and manage our coastal and marine resources. Join us on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and our other social media channels.