

Lessons Learned – 2017 Hurricane Irma Debris Management Round Table

WS131

Panel

- Dan Rodriguez - Deputy Department Head, Public Utilities, Collier County
- Dave Harner – Assistant County Manager, Lee County
- Greg Caldwell - Assistant Director Public Works, St. Johns County
- John Ward – Director, Clay County Division of Emergency Management
- Facilitator: Carter Mack – Deputy Bureau Chief, Recovery Bureau, Florida Division of Emergency Management

Topics

- Scarcity of Resources
  - To get and retain resources for your community
  - Efficient routes to support the effort
  - Debris Management Sites strategy to keep trucks moving
- Contracts
  - Rate structures
  - Performance measures

Topics

- PPDR
  - State's decision on funding PPDR activity
- Communication plans
  - Residents expectations
  - How does it assist the recovery effort
- How to build support for the recovery effort?
  - Administration
  - Political
  - Community

Topics

- Budget impact of a Irma right after Matthew
- How did Matthew help preparation for Irma?
- Intergovernmental coordination
  - Roles and responsibilities
- Use of County Resources for debris pick-up